

As a result of the acquisitions made by major corporations when the Communications Act went into effect, the Twin Cities area is already suffering from a severe shortage of news, both local and national. The commercial stations have been taken over by excessive commercial messages and slanted news. For this reason, I
BEG